Course Description

The term "Skunkworks" is used to identify a procedure that fast-tracks design and production of goods needed in a short time frame. Usually used in technology and aerospace, the aim is to remove the design process from the difficulties of going through a company's standard process in order to complete a project in as short of time as possible.

The course is team-based and demands effective collaboration. Each group agrees on a particular problem area they are going to address through the development of a product or service. Students then explore the desirability, feasibility and viability of their proposed solution. The course touches upon the topics of customer discovery, empathy building, industry research, user experience design, product development, prototyping and business modeling.

The course culminates in group presentations and a community demo day of the prototyped solutions.

Readings

Course readings will consist of articles and publications that will be distributed digitally on a weekly basis. No textbook is required.

Course Evaluation/Grading Standards

Team Production/Minimum Viable Product Prototype - 25%

Presentations - 10%

Written Assignments - 20%

Participation - 15% (In-class & on Slack Channels)

Final Showcase - 30%

Outline of Semesters

Weeks 1-8: Feasibility Analysis, Prototyping, Production
Weeks 9-14: Viability Analysis, Business Modeling, Market Testing
Weeks 15-16: Final Presentations and Demo Day

Course Management & Communication

Course readings, assignments, discussions, communications and team collaboration will take place on the Skunkworks Slack Platform (http://skunkworksfiu.slack.com).

Attendance & Participation

Attendance is mandatory and will contribute to your participation grade. More than 2 unexcused absences will negatively affect your final grade. Participation in class discussions and online Slack channels will contribute towards your evaluation.

Religious Holidays

Every effort will be made, where feasible and practical, to accommodate students whose religious practices coincide with class requirements scheduling. Please make sure to notify your instructor at the beginning of the semester of which dates you will be absent or any anticipated problems with completing course work.

Physical, mental and sensory challenges

Every effort will be made, where feasible and practical, to accommodate students who are so challenged. Should you require accommodations, contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC), if you have not done so already.

Honors College Requirements

Registration in this course implies an acceptance of and compliance with the Honors College policies for students and the FIU Code of Academic Integrity.

Honors Citizenship Requirements

Beginning in Fall 2014, Honors College students are required to accumulate at least 20 citizenship points each academic year (Fall and Spring) by attending Honors College activities. Students attending only one semester (Fall or Spring) are required to accumulate 10 citizenship points. Seehttp://honors.fiu.edu/academics/policies/citizenship/.

Student Portfolios

The Honors College will be using a portfolio method to assess students' learning outcomes. The portfolio allows for maximum flexibility in gauging student learning. Students decide (with instructor consultation) what "artifacts" or assignments to include for consideration in their portfolios to demonstrate successful achievement of each of five key student learning outcomes over the 4-year Honors experience. See www.honors.fiu.edu/portfolios.

Honors Education in the ARTS (HEARTS)

The HEARTS program is designed to give Honors College students opportunities to "explore and appreciate different artistic and cultural traditions and modes of artistic expression. HEARTS will also serve as a clearinghouse (and curatorial framework) for our students to experience the arts on campus and in the community by providing them with information about cultural activities and access to performances with free or discounted tickets. See http://honors.fiu.edu/hearts/.

Honors College Academic Misconduct Statement

In The Honors College, the term "honor" refers both to academic accomplishment and character. Students in Honors should therefore adhere to and be held to the highest standards of personal academic accountability. Academic dishonesty in any form, including plagiarism, is antithetical to the very definition of being an Honors student at FIU. Consequently, an Honors College student found responsible for academic misconduct will be dismissed from the College.

Procedures and Penalties

An Honors faculty member may bring charges of academic misconduct against an Honors student if the faculty member suspects plagiarism or other forms of academic misconduct. The faculty member will decide whether to pursue informal resolution, file formal resolution charges, or take no further action, and will follow the procedures outlined in the Honors College website (http://honors.fiu.edu/academics/policies/), and the Academic Misconduct Procedures, available athttp://www.fiu.edu/~oabp/misconductweb/1acmisconductproc.htm.
